Coaching, Leadership and Teaching

Aim
The aim of the Coaching, Leadership and Teaching Practice theme is to develop better practitioners through research and scholarly activity. Specifically, the work of the group aims to

- Upskill the workforce by enhancing best practice (coaching / teaching / pedagogy / sport leadership, etc.).
- Informing applied work / intervention work with practitioners.
- Inform teaching.
- Bring together mix of skills and expertise to collaborate on joint projects.

Members
Dr Matthew Smith – Senior Lecturer (theme leader, matt.smith@chi.ac.uk)
Matt Berry – Senior Lecturer
Dr Phil Birch – Senior Lecturer
Dave Eldridge – Senior Lecturer
Edward Christian – Senior Lecturer
Philippe Crisp – Senior Lecturer
Dr Sarah Edmunds – Senior Lecturer
Dr Suzie Everley – Senior Lecturer
Sean Figgins – PhD student
Tania Goosen – Senior Lecturer
Dr Phil Kearney – Senior Lecturer
Jane Lomax – Senior Lecturer
Daniel Potter – Senior Lecturer
Craig Pulling – Senior Lecturer
Dr Matthew Robins – Senior Lecturer
Chris Szedlak – MPhil/PhD student Lecturer
Dr Alex Twitchen – Senior Lecturer

Publications (since 2010)