Physical Activity, Lifestyle and Exercise Inclusion

Aim
The aim of the Physical Activity, Lifestyle and Exercise Inclusion theme is to adopt a multidisciplinary approach to understanding the ways in which environments and social inter-relationships across the life-course influence physical activity, lifestyle and exercise.

Members
Dr. Jordan Matthews – Research Officer (theme leader, jordan.matthews@chi.ac.uk)
Dr. Suzie Everley – Senior Lecturer
Dr. Elizabeth Pike - Reader
Dr. Julia Potter – Senior Lecturer

Publications (since 2010)

Reports (since 2010)